Ok, welcome to my new blog! I am a person who loves to buy things that help me make money online.

But I have a problem, and maybe you can empathize with me.

I have a hard time putting them into action. I buy them with all the excitement of knowing that it's going to be the next greatest thing, the reason I can quit my day job, the be all and end all - but I lose my enthusiasm fast.

Not sure why, but it happens.

So, that is where this blog comes in. It's my accountability blog. I am going to still buy the "shiny new objects" but now I am going to implement them and see if they work. I will let you in on my activity.

I will tell you that I have been online for about 2 years. In those 2 years I have learned a lot of basics, like how to set up blogs and rank in Google - before Panda.

And I have a successful online business that is chugging along. So this is a way for me to let out some of the steam and hopefully diversify my income. It's not good to have all your eggs in one basket, right?

So, join me in the adventure - sign up for updates and I will tell you what works and what does not.

PS - Links on this blog will be affiliate links, as I am working on the projects. If you buy through them, I will get paid a small amount, and you will not pay any extra for what you are purchasing.
